

Clark Sullivan is president of Sullivan & Associates, a Regina based restructuring and financial advisory services firm. Established in 2002, his firm is licensed as a Trustee in Bankruptcy and provides a full range of financial consulting services, including corporate restructuring, insolvency and turnaround management consulting.

Clark is a Chartered Accountant, a Chartered Insolvency and Restructuring Professional, and a licensed Trustee in Bankruptcy. His practice focuses on corporate restructurings, both formal and advisory, and his recent engagements have included appointments as the Court Appointed Monitor and the Trustee in formal restructurings under the Companies Creditors Arrangement Act (“CCAA”) and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (“BIA”). His corporate practice also includes receivership, bankruptcy and lender “work-out” or refinancing services.

His clients are typically drawn from the full spectrum of Saskatchewan’s entrepreneurial business community, and recent projects have included companies in the meat processing, mining, seed cleaning and processing, film production, retail and transportation industries. Prior to establishing Sullivan & Associates, Clark spent over 20 years with a national accounting firm, based at various times in their Regina, Saskatoon, Calgary, and Edmonton offices. His past experience also includes a position as the financial controller for an international oilfield equipment manufacturing business.
